And respectfully seeks action by the Court and for cause as follows:

On July 4, 2022, at approximately 7:13 p.m., the undersigned officer received a call from the defendant's wife to report that the defendant had just strangled her and she wanted him out of the house. The undersigned officer encouraged her to contact 911 if she felt unsafe. She confirmed that she would do so. At approximately 7:35 p.m., the undersigned officer received a call from the defendant to report that the police came to the residence following an altercation with him and his wife and that she was arrested.

A review of a Bridgewater Police Department report reflects that on July 4, 2022, at approximately 7:15 p.m., police reported to the defendant's home for a report of a domestic disturbance. Both the defendant and his wife appeared to be intoxicated. Officers spoke with Mrs. Bateman, who reported that she slapped the defendant across his face during an argument. She reported that he proceeded to choke her. The defendant reported that his wife slapped him, and he defended himself by pushing her away. He further advised that he knew she was calling the police, so he went outside to wait for their arrival.

Officers determined that Mrs. Bateman was the primary aggressor and arrested her for Domestic Assault & Battery. The defendant will be summonsed for Domestic Assault & Battery.

On July 7, 2022, the undersigned officer met with the defendant to discuss the incident at hand. The defendant reported that on July 4, 2022, he and his wife were consuming alcohol and got into a heated argument. He denied strangling his wife but admitted that he tried restraining her so that she would not continue to hit him. He denied having an alcohol problem and indicated that it was an isolated incident. He reported that both he and his wife are both embarrassed about the situation as they have never had any issues like this. On the same day, the undersigned officer spoke with Ms. Bateman, who agreed this was an isolated incident. She advised that they were over served and under fed and the frustrations about this pending criminal matter came to ahead. Mrs. Bateman advised that neither of them will pursue legal matters pertaining to the domestic assault and she is no way fearful of the defendant.

At this time, the Probation Office does not seek any Court action. We ask that the state matter remain in state court. The Probation Office will keep the Court informed of any further noncompliance.
